

WRITING #3 - MRS. C'S ENGLISH

IDENTITY + SOLO/THE POET X/LONG WAY DOWN

Revisit the poems listed on the next page (based on which book you just read) and try writing your own identity-based poem(s).

Things to notice:

- These poems all have to do with WHO the main character is, or thinks they are.
 - Each poem has a title (that sometimes reads right into the piece itself)
 - These poems don't rhyme
 - Lines in these poems have no specific length
 - Structures of these poems (where the line breaks and stanzas change) depend on how the writer wants the reader to perceive them but there aren't any hard and fast rules
 - Words are relatively few and chosen carefully
1. You could consider the examples a pattern or template and mimic the poet's choices.
OR
 2. Craft your own poetry in a style that suits you.
 3. Make sure the poem shows YOU – Who are you? Why is that identity important?
 4. MOST IMPORTANT: Your poetry needs to be YOURS!! Don't plagiarize.
 5. After the poem, write a brief paragraph about your poetry writing experience. What was it like? Would you repeat it? How is it different from writing in more traditional forms?

Tech Steps:

1. Open your Dropbox – and go to your DRAFTS folder.
2. Choose CREATE NEW FILE & start a new WORD document.
3. Write your poem(s) & reflection. Make them "good." Reread them to be sure it makes sense.
4. Make sure they looks like a poem & a paragraph.
5. Work on this writing in your drafts folder until you are satisfied that it says what you want to say.
6. Title the doc Yourlastname Writing 3 (not literally – replace that with YOUR last name)
7. To SUBMIT – move your appropriately named document to the your submissions folder (use the menu – 3 dots – button to choose move and then select the folder to move it to).
8. DO NOT share the document. I already have access to your folders so that is an unnecessary step.
