

NOTEBOOK TOUR

SPRING 2022

It's time. We've been collecting notebook entries all semester—quick thoughts on videos, poems, readings, visuals/pictures, reactions & responses, plus experimental pieces in varying genres. Show Mrs. C what you've got and talk about how it went.

Make a video on Flipgrid (visit Flipgrid.com and enter your class code f03e8f58)—then find the Topic labeled "Spring Notebook Tours") to showcase your notebook accomplishments. This topic will be active starting May 6th & due May 9th or 10th by end of day.

Include the following:

- # of entries – quick page through, show where they begin, end, etc.
- Flag a couple of your best/favorite entries and point them out
- What did you learn/discover through participating in quickwrites?
- Who or what are you writing for? Has the way you think about this changed?
- What (if anything) surprised you along the way?
- What are you most proud of?
- Share something—a few lines, an entire entry, a piece of your notebook thinking that you feel is particularly noteworthy for content or writing or just because.

You'll have no more than 10 minutes to talk about & show your writing. Yes, you'll need to be IN this video.* No, no one but Mrs. C will see it. (And it won't show after you upload since it's hidden from public view).

IMPORTANT: THE NOTEBOOK TOUR IS A REQUIRED COMPONENT OF THIS COURSE. WITHOUT IT, YOU MAY SEE AS MUCH AS A LETTER GRADE'S REDUCTION OF YOUR FINAL SEMESTER GRADE.
