

2022-23 DIGITAL SENIOR MEMORY BOOK (FALL SEMESTER)

OVERVIEW:

During this year (as a student in English 7A & 8A), you will complete a digital collection of works about YOU in a variety of genres collected into a sort of "book." It will consist of memories and thoughts from your life so far. It will be completed near the end of the year, however we'll be working on it off and on all year, and some pieces will appear in your portfolio each semester. Throughout the memory book writings, there are ample opportunities for reflective writing and self-discovery, but please note the final product will probably end up viewed by both your parents and others, so keep anything too personal to yourself.

7A REQUIREMENTS AND INFORMATION:

Parts I, II, and III will consist of personal narrative/exploratory "full-length," multi-paragraph compositions. Some will be included in your digital portfolio as course-required essays; however, ALL of your completed pieces will be included in your digital memory book at year end. * Most chapter descriptions include photos (pictures needed in final versions only).

During Fall Semester (7A) you will have options to choose any of these chapters when offered MB (memory book) as one of your writing options. I'd guess we'll write 2, maybe 3 of them this fall.

- In all chapters, be sure to explore the significance of events and importance of people and/or places in your life. The WHY IT MATTERS. As essay they should work to connect the particular to the universal.

POSSIBLE CHAPTERS: Ideas and suggestions – go ahead and change titles or even tweak topics as suits you. Also note the chapter descriptors/questions are NOT a prompt. You don't need to answer them. They are simply provided to help you start thinking. (You won't write EVERY chapter . . . unless you really want to.)

EVALUATION:

Like most papers in English 7A, we'll bring these chapters to WRITE CLUB for read-throughs, feedback, and sharing. *Papers should be a page-and-a-half to two pages in length (as long as they need to be), MLA formatted, resist formula, and have an original title that fits the piece exclusively. As always, you'll have the opportunity for revision. And later, the ability to choose which papers get teacher feedback. You've got a story, let's write it!

*Not actually part of evaluation, just general parameters for your work to keep it meeting expectations.
